Of course there is cream to add, and sugar, and coffee if you insist. Lunch consisted of two dishes, a Spanish Omelet, piping hot, and a fruit salad. Add a slice of brown bread and it is an ample and sufficient meal for any one. Supper was a little more the regular thing indulged in by White Folks. Equality prevails, and no woman at the Red House has to importune male man for money. There is a soup-plate on the mantel half full of silver and dollar bills. Each one of the family takeB what he needs and no more. As for the dress of both men and women, it is plain--and comfortable, but not expressed in fancy. The women were clothed so they could reach high, or kick high. There was a THE PHI-row of reefers on the rack, and I noticed that LISTINE these were worn by men or women alike, aa their needs required. Books were everywhere and pictures but a few--and these were of the best. Good-cheer, banter, challenge and frankness marked the conversation. If you spoke, you were supposed to say something, otherwise there was the merry hatha! or chilling silence. 3 To live in such a house with such people is a liberal education. It puts one on his good behavior, and brings out only the best. You can be a grump and a grouch in a family, but not in a group. On the flight of...
