An Alphabet

By Walter Anderson

University Press of Mississippi, United States, 1992. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 277 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. When he died in 1965, Walter Anderson left a seemingly inexhaustible store of watercolors, linoleum cuts, and fanciful drawings that cry out for a place in books. Thus comes An Alphabet. It combines his love of language and his love of pictures. Here the letters he created on linoleum blocks leap into a life of their own in eccentric shapes and spellings. They run the gamut of Anderson s imagination from Apple and Acrobat to Zebra. Each of Anderson s letters vibrates with energy, spontaneity, and surprise: O for Opossum, P for Persimmon Tree, and X for Xebec.
