Let the chapter-by-chapter guide in this sidekick of Fear Nothing guide you through the twists and turns of the novel, and help you make sense of the major themes and character motivations. D. D. must learn to come to grips with the pain she feels, while Adeline is haunted by her biological familys grisly legacy, one that ties her to the killer in an intimate way. Who is really killing the women of Boston by skinning them Fear Nothing brings up interesting notions about nature vs. nurture and the role pain plays in life. A fast-paced conclusion brings the story full circle and is sure to leave readers satisfied. In Fear Nothing, Gardner uses a mixture of first- and third-person perspective with a casual, engaging writing style. The seventh installment of Lisa Gardners Detective D. D. Warren series, Fear Nothing is a dark fusion of thriller and mystery. While on the hunt for a serial killer with a gruesome motif, D. D. sustains a rare and painful injury, one that puts her on the sidelines. Looking for some relief and a way to deal with the emotional turmoil that comes with being in constant pain, she starts seeing a pain therapist who herself can feel no pain. When the killer strikes again, D. D. finds herself drawn back into the chase, alongside her therapist, Dr. Adeline Glen, who has a dark connection to the events. This item ships from La Vergne, TN.
