It is more especially the duty of those persons, who profess to maintain for themselves the rights of human nature, and who acknowledge the obligations of Christianity, to use such means as are in their power, to extend the blessings of freedom to every part of the human race; and in a more particular manner, to such of their fellow-creatures, as are entitled to freedom by the laws and constitutions of any of the United States, and who, notwithstanding, are detained in bondage, by fraud or violence. - From a full conviction of the truth and obligation of these principles - from a desire to diffuse them, wherever the miseries and vices of slavery exist, and in humble con dence of the favour and support of the Father of Mankind, the subscribers have associated themselves, under the title of the Pennsylvania Society for promoting the Abolition of Slavery, and the Relief of free Negroes unlawfully held in Bondage. For effecting these purposes, they have adopted the following constitution: I. The officers of the society shall consist of a president, two vice-presidents, two secretaries, a treasurer, twelve counsellors, (viz....
