AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There s a special visitor at Calvin and Calley s school today. It s Officer Friskey, and he shares a very important message with all of the students. He s here to talk about strangers and why kids should never talk to a stranger, take anything like candy from a stranger, or get a simple ride home. Officer Friskey says it s not safe and that children should tell a trusted adult if a stranger approaches them. Calvin and Calley and their best friends get a chance to practice Officer Friskey s advice when a stranger offers them all the candy they can eat during recess. They tell the stranger no and quickly report to their teacher, Miss Buttercup. A picture book for young readers, Adventures of Calvin and Calley teaches children an important lesson about stranger danger and staying safe.
