WORLD SHIPPING DATA: REPORT ON EUROPEAN MISSION (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from World Shipping Data: Report on European Mission Merchant shipping is now the universal interest of mankind. Every nation, great or small, is alert to the vital bearing of ships upon its future prosperity. After three months spent in the midst of the great events connected with the termination of the war and the solidification of peace, I deem it an immediate duty to lay before my colleagues of the United States Shipping Board a report upon the data accumulated by my conferences and investigations. The war has brought us into a high place as a maritime power. I find the peoples of the world aroused to an intense interest and concern as to the use we are to make of this power, now that peace is returned. My observations in Europe compel optimism. In America, you have heard much about British competition. In Great Britain I heard a great deal more about American competition. The expressions of British publicists, newspapers and officials which came to my attention provided no grounds for alarm about the future of our shipping. The lesson I learned from the British was not to concentrate too much upon the strength of the competition we must meet. For more than a generation, we have heard British seamanship and British ship-operating ability lauded. We have shared this admiration.
