RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 38 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. : U. S. Environmental Protection Agency, Office of Inspector General, 2006 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)74150234 Subject: Hurricane Katrina, 2005. Excerpt: . . . Recommendations Recognizing that the Assistant Administrators for OSWER and OARM have begun a process to improve EPAs response efforts for future catastrophic events based on its Katrina experience, we recommend that the Assistant Administrators: 2-1 Develop a strategy plan to deploy a sufficient number of contracting officers and other support personnel to an emergency response area. 2-2 Develop predetermined lists of volunteers who are willing to be deployed for time periods of 2 weeks or longer. 2-3 Continue exploring establishing advance agreements with vendors that are flexible and detailed for the items EPA used substantially during its Katrina response, such as housing, recreational vehicles, and food services. Agency Response and OIG Comment EPA concurs with all of the recommendations in this chapter, and has initiated actions to address the recommendations. EPA has developed and provided initial training for a Response Support Corps list of EPA personnel willing and prepared to deploy to future incidents of national significance. This list includes contracting personnel. OARM is an active participant in the Government-wide Chief Acquisition Officer Council Contracting Contingency Work Group, which has a goal of creating a similar Government-wide list for use by all Federal agencies in the event of future incidents of national significance. OARM is also working with the Office of Management and Budget to develop a list of Federal Government-wide acquisition professionals who can be called upon to support emergency response efforts. OARM is currently in the process of awarding two national blanket purchasing agreements to provide emergency response technical support and logistical services (food, housing, facilities,...
