The Economic Development Administration (EDA), targeted for elimination or major reinvention early in the 104th Congress, gained a new lease on life in the waning days of the 105th. Having been kept alive via appropriations bills since its last authorizing legislation expired in 1982, the EDA was reauthorized for 5 years by P. L. 105-393. While EDAs organizational structure, strategies, and programs have undergone substantial changes during its 37-year history, its overall mission remains much the same as originally envisioned: to provide grants for infrastructure development, business incentives, and other forms of assistance to help communities alleviate conditions of substantial and persistent unemployment in economically distressed areas and regions. . . This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
