The Commission will discuss these petitions and comments in the very near future. As you know, the Shipping Act permits ocean common carriers to enter into service contracts with one or more shippers. OSRA permitted these contracts to be filed confidentially with the Com-mission. Indeed, since OSRAs implementation, ocean common car-riers report that 80 percent or more of their liner cargo moves under service contracts. While non-vessel-operating common car-riers may enter into service contracts as shippers with ocean car-riers, the Act does not grant NVOs the right to offer service con-tracts in their capacity as carriers with their shipping customers. Six NVOs and one national trade association representing NVOs have filed separate petitions with the Commission seeking some type of relief from this prohibition, either through individual ex-emptions or special rule-making. The Commission received many comments in...
