It also contains in-depth analyses of the songs lyrics. , abstract: Few phenomena shook and transformed the American public in the 20th century like the one labelled White racism by American sociologist Joe R. Feagin in his 1995 book White racism: the basics. Since the 1890s, racial relations in the United States had become worse. During the early decades of the century, lynchings of black Americans, most of them occurring in the South, sometimes averaged 150 a year, with many cases going unreported. 1 In addition to these terrible outbursts of violence, virtually all blacks had to deal with everyday discrimination when it came to employment, housing, education and other sectors of daily life. This racist segregation was sanctioned in most cases by...
